Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Baccalaureate Addressed to the Senior Class: On the Day of Commencement, 1843 Young Gentlemen: When a son leaves the family circle in the midst of which he has been brought up to the years of manhood, and goes out into the world to act for himself, it is natural that his parents, full of anxiety for his future welfare, should follow him to the gate with their blessings and prayers; and having given him such advice as may in some measure supply his lack of experience, commit him, in a parting Adieu, to the care of that Good Providence which only can conduct him in safety through the perils and uncertainties of his future course. Such, in some respects, is the situation in, which you are now placed; and such the office which this Institution, whose children you are, performs to you to-day. To-day you are under her tuition and authority; to-morrow you will be so no longer. What a solemn moment is this! Let me improve it, by delivering to you some words of...
