The gauge at Red River Landing did not fall below 1. 3 during the season, so less than the usual amount of dredging became necessary in Old River. It is estimated that 57, 000 cubic yards of material were dredged and deposited in the stream alongside the cut made by the dredge. The dredge was kept in Old River from August 9 to August 27, when the condition of the channel was such as to make dredging no longer necessary. A navigable channel with a depth of 5J feet or more was maintained throughout the season. The details of this work are set forth in the accompanying report of Mr. L. E. Lion, Junior Engineer. The amount expended from June 30,...
