Eagles Wings

By Andrew Layton

Xulon Press, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Eagles Wings presents the remarkable story of two friends who grew up in Battle Creek, Michigan during the 1930 s. At the onset of World War II, both men embarked on separate paths that simultaneously thrust them into the terror of war amid the skies of Europe. Both were seriously wounded and would spend nearly a year as prisoners of war. Through an unlikely series of events, the two men were later reunited and sent by chance to an orthopedic hospital located just blocks away from their childhood homes. Lived by Air Force veterans Jack Curtis and Larry Jenkins, this book will take you back in time with them as they deliver a powerful first-hand account. Read along and enjoy their reflections. It s a kind of history no text book could capture and a kind of story even Hollywood couldn t top. Eagles Wings.is a story of the incredible sacrifice of two heroes of the World War II generation, Jack Curtis and Larry Jenkins. More than that, it is a tremendous tale of friendship and camaraderie....
