Excerpt: . have been made. A little beyond this point we left the road and came out on Eeed Eun, a branch of Two Mile Eun, which comes into the Alleghany not far from Franklin. Here were abundant evidences of a determined search for oil being in progress. Eeed Eun, is a very attractive territory to those who have a good eye for desirable oil locations. The bottom land of the Eun, and the second bottom a few yards higher, afford as good prospect for successful wells as can be found on any of the Creeks or Euns in the vicinity of Oil Creek. Near the Junction of the Eeed with Two Mile Eun, is a well, down 350 feet, with good indications of oil. Two Mile Eun has not yet any producing wells, but preparations have been made for boring it thoroughly. THE ALLEGHANY...
